

AQUARIUS

REALTY GROUP

Make A Wish Come True

ABOUT US

Aquarius Realty Group is a real estate organization particularly specializing in the sale and marketing of primary and second home properties in the Loreto and Baja California Sur region, with a team of professionals focused on delivering personalized and effective real estate services to our clients.

Aquarius Realty Group was founded with a clear vision and well defined principles that apply to all areas of our work. It is our continued commitment to these principles that sets Aquarius Realty Group apart from our competitors. Our client's satisfaction in the results that we achieve is paramount to defining our success. The two founders of Aquarius are Rodolfo Guerrero and Joel Sherman.

Our mission

Our goal is to provide each client with the finest comprehensive real estate service and personal attention in the industry. We hope to create a culture that meets the highest standards time after time through hard work and careful planning. We want our brand Aquarius Realty Group, to carry a reputation which resonates with customers to build trust and increase the effectiveness of our agents. Aquarius Realty Group will be a name that represents a unique standard for our customer/clients and inspires an unrivaled level of confidence. We recognize that we have a special obligation to bring professionalism and integrity to each client and every transaction. We know that our growth will continue only if we meet and exceed the highest ethical and business standards. We will always be ready to test new concepts if they can bring greater benefit to our clients. We believe in the value of competition, but will always cooperate with other real estate agencies to achieve the best interests of our clients in the purchase and sale of real property here in Baja California Sur.

Our vision

All of our associates at Aquarius Realty Group shall be honest, dependable, knowledgeable, and most importantly trustworthy. We want to be the premier real estate group in the Loreto and Baja California Sur market. We will have the systems and tools designed for the productive real estate professional enabling them to better serve the market and ensuring a superior experience for YOU, our client.

We will represent our clients in the most professional manner providing a full service real estate company capable of completely satisfying our customers' needs. We will achieve our vision by helping them realize their dream of home ownership as well as our clients being able to sell their property faster and for more money.

This is accomplished through our knowledge and awareness of our dynamic real estate market here in Baja California Sur as well as the vast real estate experience of several of our associates from North America.
